NARAL Pro-Choice Oregon PAC Congratulates Pro-Choice Winners Statewide
Hoyle, Kafoury and Jayapal Among First Wave of Pro-Choice Champions
Elected in 2018

PORTLAND, OR – Following yesterday’s election results, NARAL Pro-Choice Oregon PAC congratulates newly-elected Labor Commissioner Val Hoyle and other endorsed candidates for their Tuesday night victories. While over 50 endorsed candidates can now set their eyes on November, non-partisan candidates like Hoyle, Multnomah County Chair Deborah Kafoury, and newly-elected Multnomah County Commissioner Susheela Jayapal secured their campaign victories in last night’s election.

Congratulating each endorsed candidate’s campaign, Grayson Dempsey, Executive Director of NARAL Pro-Choice Oregon PAC, had this to say:

“Pro-choice voters are standing up to assaults on women’s rights and efforts to defund abortion and reproductive healthcare. We thank Oregon voters for securing Tuesday night’s victories for trusted champions like Val Hoyle, Deborah Kafoury and Susheela Jayapal and are thrilled to continue to support our endorsed candidates moving forward to November’s election.”

NARAL Pro-Choice Oregon PAC proudly endorsed 64 candidates in the 2018 Primary Election for their commitment to protect and expand reproductive health equity in Oregon.

Natalie Sept, NARAL Pro-Choice Oregon’s PAC Chair said, “Yesterday’s election results show us that Oregon voters are proud to support candidates that lead with pro-choice values. We look forward to November and the next wave of elected leaders who will fight to protect reproductive rights and champion policies like Paid Family and Medical Leave to support families across Oregon.”
