

INTERNSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

Position: Organizing Intern

Reports to: Advocacy Director

Status: 10 hours per week between January and July, 2019

Stipend: $2,000. *Will work with students to include school credit if applicable

Organization:

NARAL Pro-Choice Oregon develops and sustains a constituency that uses the political process to guarantee every person who can become pregnant the right to make personal decisions regarding the full range of reproductive choices, including preventing unintended pregnancy, bearing healthy children, and choosing legal abortion. Two additional affiliated organizations help advance NARAL Pro-Choice Oregon's mission: the NARAL Pro-Choice Oregon Foundation oversees broad-reaching initiatives that expand reproductive health access and promote health equity for all Oregonians, and the NARAL Pro-Choice Oregon PAC conducts direct electoral work with and for pro-choice candidates.

Position:

The Organizing Intern will work to engage and develop a growing base of NPCO supporters in Portland, Salem and Eugene during the 2019 session and assist NPCO's political, policy, and advocacy team in supporting policy priorities and mobilizing membership in support of Paid Family Medical Leave. The Organizing Intern will have the opportunity to learn about the legislative process and have meaningful impact on key strategies for passing progressive legislation.

Responsibilities:

- The Organizing Intern will cultivate and build NPCO's existing volunteer and supporter resources by helping to manage NPCO's rapid response team;
- Cultivate and build NPCO's existing story bank and work to engage storytellers to leverage their stories to take concrete action;
- Assist in development of key messages to support the work of pro-choice legislative champions.

Qualifications:

We are seeking candidates who excel in organizational and interpersonal skills, are independent problem solvers, and are passionate about the mission of NARAL Pro-Choice Oregon. You should have:

- Excellent oral and written communications skills with fine-tuned attention to detail;
- Strong organizational, time management and planning skills. Ability to effectively handle multiple tasks, changing priorities, stressful situations and complex assignments;
- Ability to take initiative and be proactive;
- Commitment to the mission of NARAL Pro-Choice Oregon.

To Apply:

Please submit a cover letter and resume to Cherie Martin, Advocacy Director, at cherie@prochoiceoregon.org with 'Organizing Intern' in the subject line.

Individuals of color, individuals living outside the Portland-Metro area, individuals who are members of marginalized communities and students are strongly encouraged to apply.
